

You are invited to JPll Austen Day!

Celebrating Jane Austen's book, Pride and Prejudice

208th anniversary celebrated by afternoon tea, followed by film showing in the JPii language classroom

Thursday March 16, 3:00-5:45

All Eighth Grade Girls...

The JPll tradition of celebrating Jane Austen and her beloved book, Pride and Prejudice, will continue this year, with a showing of the 2005 film Pride and Prejudice, starring Keira Knightley.

Please come and enjoy some English tea and scones, and celebrate English literature in style. Bring in anything English to eat, tea, pretty paper goods, or if you find you cannot bring something, you are still welcome, as we are sure we will have plenty.

You may also bring a teacup and saucer to celebrate our "English tea" in style. (You may leave teacup in the language lab, if you want.) You may bring a change of clothes, just not yoga pants! You may bring pillows and sit on the floor or be more properly British and drink your tea in a chair, or both!

Examples of British tea sandwiches: egg salad, cucumber, watercress, chicken salad; crusts removed and cut into small sizes. Any British tea goodies such as scones, little tea cookies, etc. anything welcome.

Please let Mrs. Roscoe know if you will be able to come, and what you will bring (if you can).

Mrs. Roscoe and Mrs. Mills
